

Selected Vocabulary from "The Talent Show / Wówayuphike Kpazópi" anápeglaskapA – to clap for someone, applaud them atúňwAň – to look at or for someone or something, to observe something awíyukčan – to think of or about someone or something, form an opinion of haňkáši – female cousin (male speaking) hiňkté – to be hairy, covered in hair iglúkčan – to think about something for oneself, make up one's mind or opinion, decide for oneself íňš tók–What about it? What do you think?

iwáčhiňyAň – to depend on someone to do something, need something from someone, rely or depend on iyáunčha – to imitate someone's way of speaking íyotakA – to sit down iyówiňič'iyA – to allow oneself to do something, to be willing to do kačhánġle iyéyA – to make something roll (as a hoop) kpazó – to show something of one's own demonstrate (a skill, quality) kuňkúnġla – a pickle lečhálaš – just now, just a second ago lenála – this is all there is, no more lowáň – to sing napé hiyúkiyA – to extend the hand, put out the hand in this direction napéyuzA – to shake someone's hand nážiň – to be standing oápĥe čík'ala – a minute okáhňiňġA – to understand something okháň – to be available, not busy; to be roomy, have space onáh'uy wašté – to be good to hear, pleasant to listen to optébyela – briefly, for only a short time phúġe – to snort (as a horse does) pĥehíň – hair

ptegléška – a cow saňní – one of two, one of a pair šaglóġan – eight šehánštukĥa – this time for sure, this time at last, this time it will really happen tĥaňníš – already tókhe – an expression of mild surprise waátuňwAň –to be observing do observing, to explore, scout waš'ágyA – to make someone or something strong, strengthen, energize watóhanġl šna – sometimes, now and then, from time to time wayážo – to play a flute, to play an instrument by blowing wíyuzA – to hold things with one's hand wówapiska – paper wówayuphikA – a talent yusótA – to use something up, spend, expend, exhaust

žó – to whistle